

Paul went on many dangerous sea voyages and was shipwrecked three times. Eventually, he got to Rome and lived in a rented house for two years and during this time he wrote many wonderful letters to places like Corinth, Ephesus and Galatia and others to people like Timothy and Titus. These letters can be read today and are all found in the Bible. Look up the index and start reading.