

Some local people were bribed to say that Stephen told lies about the Law of Moses and the Jewish Temple. This led to Stephen being arrested and dragged before the Court. Stephen proved that no lies were told. This led to anger by the Leaders and eventually Stephen was stoned to death which was a very cruel thing to do. Standing nearby is the main person of our story Saul of Tarsus, who later became Paul. At first Saul hated Christians, but then one day.....