

Jesus told Ananias, one of his close followers, to go and find the man called Saul of Tarsus and then pray over him so that he would be healed and be able to see again.

Ananias did as he was told and Saul was healed. Then Ananias baptised him and Saul became a follower of Jesus too – a Christian.